CONCORD, March 5, 1931.

A convention of the Rockingham County delegation was held in Room 100 on Thursday, March 5, immediately after the morning session, due notice of said convention having previously been advertised and announced by the speaker.

The delegates were convened for a dual purpose: first, to make the biennial appropriation for Farm Bureau extension work; and second, as a special committee to whom was referred House Bill No. 125, an act relating to the salary of the solicitor for Rockingham County.

Under the first article relating to the appropriations for Rockingham County Farm Bureau extension work, President Bassett, of the Rockingham Farm Bureau, and James Purington, county agent, appeared and stated the requirements for the ensuing two years. The same sum as was granted at the 1929 session was asked for. After brief discussion, on motion made by Henry P. Haynes, of Deerfield, duly seconded, it was voted to raise and appropriate the sum of $6500 for 1931 and a similar sum for 1932. On a roll call thirty-three members voted in the affirmative and none in the negative.

As a special committee to act upon House Bill No. 125, an act relating to the salary of the county solicitor, the members listened to the presentation of a request to increase the salary of the solicitor from $1200 to $2000 by Judge Guptill, of Portsmouth, and Assistant Attorney-General Wadleigh, Stephen M. Wheeler, of Atkinson, Judge Adams, of Portsmouth, and others, all for the bill. In executive session it was voted 24 to 10 to amend the bill by striking out $2000 and substituting $1500 and to report the bill as amended ought to pass.

Adjourned, subject to call of the chairman.

Commissioners' Report

In accordance with the Public Statutes of the State of New Hampshire, the commissioners of Rockingham County herewith present the annual reports of the county commissioners, clerk of the Superior Court, sheriff, solicitor, superintendent of the County Farm and House of Correction, farm physician, farm chaplain, treasurer and auditors for the year ending December 31, 1931.

The year that came to an end on December 31, 1931, will long be remembered by the present board of county commissioners and owing to the depression will go down in history as one of the most distressing years that has ever been experienced in the county's work.

Families, who have never before suffered, have been forced to ask for help, having been reduced to want and desperation. The wage earner who would only be too glad to work, if he could find it, has been forced through non-employment to apply for relief for himself and family.

The farm has had a larger number of inmates than for many years, being almost filled to its capacity. The county hospital has taken care of many cases in a most satisfactory manner.

The buildings at the farm were all repainted with two coats of paint this year, and a new piggery was built, which will take care of the swine, in a most sanitary manner, and we feel very proud of the farm buildings, and think they will compare very favorably with the farm buildings of the other counties in the state. The last legislature appropriated the sum of five thousand dollars for the purpose of building a new piggery and gave permission to the commissioners to take whatever might be necessary to complete the work and repair the barn from their surplus.

Such minor repairs which have been necessary on the Records Building and Court House in Exeter and the Portsmouth Jail and Court House in Portsmouth have been taken care of, and we are glad to report that these buildings are in an excellent condition.

The law termed "Old Age Assistance," which was passed at the last session of the legislature, granting assistance to needy people who have lived in the county over fifteen years, and being over seventy years of age, has been enforced, although no appropriation was made by the state to take care of this expense; therefore all the money spent for this purpose has had to come out of our county's surplus. This law has greatly increased the expenses of the county commissioners as the law requires that hearings shall be held before the commissioners in the towns from which applications are received.

The aid to the blind has been greatly increased this year, but this is a very worthy and satisfactory branch of the commissioners' work, as it brings to those unfortunates, who suffer through no fault of their own, much happiness.

Every effort was made on the part of the commissioners and Sheriff Spinney and many other people in the county, who were interested in the inmates of the farm, to make it a merry Christmas for them. There was a Christmas tree in every department and every child, inmate and prisoner in the institution was remembered on Christmas day.

The full board of commissioners meet each Wednesday at the County Farm for the regular weekly inspection and will be pleased to see any of the selectmen or anyone who is especially interested in the farm on that day.

The board also meets every Friday in Portsmouth to transact any county business that may come before them at that time.

We remain,

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM B. UNDERHILL.
IRVING W. MARSTON.
SIMES FRINK.

Superintendent Stiles' Report

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners of Rockingham County:

I hereby submit the annual report of the County Almshouse and House of Correction for the year ending December 31, 1931.

We wish to express our thanks to the Board of Commissioners for their cooperation and help during the year.

To those of our staff of employees who have served faithfully with us during the year we are most grateful.

We also wish to thank all organizations, clubs and friends, who contributed so generously to our men, women and children at Christmas, thereby making it a truly red letter day in their memory.

And to those friends who have so kindly contributed books, papers and magazines, and others who have contributed their time and talent for the entertainment of our people we express our sincere appreciation and thanks.

To Dr. Mitchell, who has been untiring in his efforts to render any aid possible, and to those who have so ably assisted him, we are truly grateful.

Physician's Report

January 1, 1932.

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners of Rockingham County:

The above date reminds us that a new report concerning the sanitary and general conditions at the county institution at Brentwood is expected.

Due probably to the general business depression the average number of inmates has been larger than for many years before this. Consequently there has been more nursing and medical work required than usual.

Excepting a few epidemics of colds there have been no infections prevalent. There has been an unusual number of specific cases.

There have been eight births with two terribly deformed children.

The death list numbers 32; nine of these only lived from eight hours to a week. One was dead on arrival and one died on the way, but so far from the farm that it was not counted in our list.

Miss Lord, our head nurse, has been steadily and ably at her post, patient and kind even to the most ungrateful, and some are.

Dr. Donald E. Higgins, my associate, has been a great help and relief to me by his able and very kind assistance.

The exchange of the old agate for new earthen table dishes is a great improvement and appreciated by the inmates.

Few other changes have been made, except I might add, a new piggery has been built at a safe distance from other buildings, thereby making conditions about the barns more sanitary.

I wish to emphasize the spirit of co-operation of the board of commissioners. The superintendent, matron and their assistants have done all possible for the comfort and welfare of these committed to our care and for my aid and pleasure. All of which is thankfully appreciated.

A. W. MITCHELL.

Chaplain's Report

To the County Commissioners:!

The chaplain would report that during the year 1931 he has conducted twenty-four religious services in the chapel on Sunday afternoons, with an average attendance of 33 2-3. This past quarter the attendance has averaged nearly 50. The chaplain tries to present a straight-forward Gospel message, so that it may be of help to those present.

By means of calls the chaplain has tried to bring cheer and comfort to those in sickness or distress.

One night of Christmas week the chaplain presented to a goodly company some colored Christmas stereopticon slides depicting the story of Christ's nativity.

A few leaflets and papers have been distributed among the children.

The chaplain has been called upon to officiate at frequent funerals at the fa m.

The chaplain is appreciative of the cordial co-operation of Superintendent and Mrs. Stiles and of all the other officials. He has appreciated, too, those who have helped with the playing on Sunday afternoons.

Respectfully submitted,

WALLACE S. BOARDMAN,

Chaplain.

Solicitor's Report

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners for the County of Rockingham:

April 1, 1931, when I took office there were about twenty-five cases still pending in Superior Court on the criminal list, some of which have been disposed of and some of which are still pending. Those disposed of are as follows:

703, State v. French; offence: operation of motor vehicle under the influence of intoxicating liquor; plea not guilty. After a trial by jury a verdict of not guilty was ordered by the Court.

799, State v. Ernest H. Johnson; offence: violation of Blue Sky law. This case was marked "not to go forward."

803, Henry Theaucault; offence: larceny. This case was marked "not to go forward."

869-813, State v. Albert J. Sand's; offence: embezzlement and other crimes of a fraudulent nature. This case was marked "not to go forward" on plea of nolo by respondent. Restitution was made to the injured parties.

818, State v. George W. Munsey; offence: attempted larceny by check; disposition: "not to go forward." Mr. Munsey was a member of the bar, practising law at Exeter, and the above marking was made after he handed to me his resignation from the bar, addressed to the Supreme Court. This resignation was not accepted by the Supreme Court and Mr. Munsey was later disbarred.

820, State v. Earl F. Tuttle; offence: neglect to provide for minor child. Plea guilty; sentence: the respondent was ordered to pay four dollars per week for the support of the child in question.

821, State v. Alphonse LaRoche; offence: keeping for sale intoxicating liquor, second offence. The respondent pleaded guilty just before the trial by jury was to commence; sentence: fine of $100 and costs and three months in the House of Correction.

827-832 State v. Walter Wilson, John McEwan and Henry H. Eastwood; offence: larceny of poultry; all pleaded guilty just before trial; sentence: McEwan one year and one day to three years, Wilson two years in State Prison, suspended on his making restitution of $298 to person wronged; and Eastwood one year in jail suspended.

835-837, State v. Raymond Leavitt, William Ely, Ray E. Ely; offence: breaking entering and larceny; plea guilty; sentence: nine months in House of Correction, suspended on payment of $200 restitution to person wronged and $100 costs each.

850, State v. Leonard Higgins; offence: operation of motor vehicle after license had been revoked; nol pros.

851, State v. Alton Eaton; offence: simple assault; nol pros.

852, State v. Robert K. Bete; offence: driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor; plea guilty; sentence: $100 fine and sixty days in jail.

The Grand Jury met at Portsmouth Tuesday, April 14, 1931, and returned twenty-six indictments, which were disposed of as follows:

856-859, State v. Charles Bowman; Fred Bowman, Arthur Bowman and Leslie True; offence: larceny of copper wire; plea guilty; sentence: Charles Bowman one year suspended on payment of fine of $50 and costs of $150, Fred Bowman one year in jail suspended. Arthur Bowman one year in jail suspended. Leslie True one year in jail suspended on payment of costs of $50.

860-864, State v. Tony Massaro, Dominic Antenizo, Nick Landeno and Frank Pattelena; offence: breaking, entering and larceny and receiving stolen goods. The first three pleaded guilty, Pattelena pleaded nolo; sentence: Massaro, Antenizo, and Landeno nine months in jail, suspended on payment of costs of $100 each. Pattelena continued for sentence.

865-867, State v. Malcolm Smith, George L. Smith and Warren D. Beane; offence: breaking, entering and larceny; plea guilty; each sentenced nine months in jail.

868, State v. Robert S. Paul; offence: larceny of automobile; plea guilty; continued for sentence on payment of costs of $50.

869, State v. Wendell P. King; offence: larceny of automobile; plea guilty; sentence: one year in jail, suspended. This respondent was turned over to the authorities for the County of Strafford on a similar offence.

870, State v. Ray Miller; same disposition as 869.

871, State v. Sherman Bissell; offence: larceny; plea guilty; sentence: six months in the House of Correction, suspended on payment of costs of $20.

872, State v. George Munsey; offence: false pretenses; same disposition as 818.

873-875, State v. Irving M. Collins; offence: embezzlement; plea guilty; sentence: two and one-half to five years in State Prison.

877-878, State v. Clinton Chute; offence: lascivious act; plea guilty; sentence: three to five years in State Prison.

879-880, State v. Clarence M. Heyt, Bessie S. Balch; offence: adultery; plea, not guilty. Disposition: not to go forward. Although the evidence in this case was strong against the respondents, it was my judgment that other circumstances surrounding it did not warrant further prosecution by the authorities.

881, State v. Thomas Eaton; offence: larceny; plea, guilty; sentence: nine months in the House of Correction.

883, State v. Henry Ordway; offence: bigamy; plea, guilty; sentence: six months in jail and to pay costs of $100.

Seven appeal cases for various misdemeanors were entered at this term and were, for the most part, disposed of without trial.

During the summer months many cases relative to the motor vehicle and liquor laws were prosecuted by me in the Municipal Courts in the many towns in the county and numerous investigations of other cases were made with appropriate action where it was deemed necessary under the circumstances surrounding each individual investigation.

On July 1, 1931, the New Hampshire Breeders' Association opened the Rockingham Park at Salem for the purpose of conducting running horse races. I was present at the track on the opening day, and had with me Sheriff Spinney and several of his deputies. At the track the sponsors of the races operated a system of letting, which was termed the "certificate" or "pari mutual" system. The sheriff and his deputies, under my direction, purchased tickets on a certain race at this meeting and the winning ticket paid somewhere in the vicinity of $16 for an "investment" of $2.00. In 1906 the Supreme Court for the State of New Hampshire, upon request of the Governor and Council, rendered an opinion wherein it held that "the racing of horses is a game, and any form of letting thereon is gambling within the meaning of Section 6, Chapter 270 in the Public Statutes." (73 N. H. 625). On the strength of this decision I applied to Judge William H. Sawyer, chief justice of the Superior Court, for an injunction against the conducting of gambling at the race track. This injunction was granted. It in no way enjoined the sponsors of the races from conducting races at the track, but was aimed solely at gambling. This injunction is still in force.

The Grand Jury met at Exeter on the fourth Tuesday of October, 1931, and brought in many indictments. The Grand Jury was later recalled to consider other cases of too great importance to await the April Term of Superior Court. There were 32 appeal cases for various offences entered at the October Term, most of which were disposed of on arraignment day with pleas of guilty and imposition of the lower court sentences. The offences covered by these appeal cases involved misdemeanors, possession of short holsters, drunkenness, violation of the motor vehicle and liquor laws and assaults. Two of the appeal cases were for violation of the so-called Blue Laws. The cases wherein indictments were returned by the Grand Jury were in part disposed of as follows:

1. State v. Morris Harris, three counts; offence: larceny by check; plea, guilty; sentence: one year in jail, suspended on payment of costs of $95 and make restitution.
2. State v. John Mosul, Frank Kapela, Samuel Agrista,

John Saratora, Charles A. Yemma and Felix Cook; offence: armed robbery at Derry. These cases were all marked not to go forward for the reason that these men are confined in the State Prison at Charlestown, Mass., under sentence of five to seven years as to Kapela and Saratora, and 15 to 17 years as to the others for offences committed in Massachusetts.

3. State v. Earl W. Tirrel and Everett B. Stanhope; offence: larceny of hens; plea, guilty; sentence: Tirrel one year and one day to three years in State Prison; Stanhope three and one-half years to five years in State Prison.

4. State v. William Pease, Howard Pease, Rufus A. Merrill and Robert Ballou; offence: breaking and entering freight cars at Rockingham Junction; plea, guilty; sentence: William Pease, Howard Pease and Robert Ballou each one year and one day to three years in State Prison, Rufus A. Merrill one year in jail, suspended on payment of costs of $50.

5. State v. Stanley Palen, Michael Kotuli, Leonard O. Gariepy; offence: breaking, entering and larceny; Palen and Gariepy pleaded guilty and were sentenced to nine and seven months respectively in the House of Correction at Brentwood. The Kotuli case is still pending.

6. State v. John Union; offence: larceny of hens at Newington; plea, not guilty. Trial by jury, verdict "guilty;" sentence: three to five years in State Prison.

7. State v. John Crane and William Vlosopoulous; offence: breaking, entering and larceny. They are at this time about to plead guilty and then will be turned over to the authorities for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

8. State v. William McDonald; offence: assault with intent to kill; plea, not guilty. This case has not as yet been disposed of for the reason that the woman assaulted by him will probably die, and McDonald will be indicted for murder.

9. State v. Wilfred J. LaPorte; offence: embezzlement; plea, guilty; sentence: two to four years in State Prison. LaPorte was tax collector for the town of Newmarket. This matter was handled by the attorney general, whose duty it is to handle all cases involving the misappropriation of the town funds.

10. State v. William G. Moody; offence: larceny; plea, guilty; sentence: sixty days in jail, suspended during good behavior.

11. State v. Zissis Carozzi, Walter Johnson and Frank Jean; offence: highway robbery. This is a highjacking case, the plans for which were developed by Carozzi. Johnson and Jean pleaded guilty, Carozzi pleaded not guilty. A trial by jury was had and Johnson and Jean testified for the state. The verdict of the jury was guilty. Sentence: Johnson three to five years in State Prison, suspended; Jean, one year and one day to three years in State Prison; Carozzi six to eight years in State Prison.

12. State v. Francis Nash; offence: lewdness. Nash was committed to the State Hospital at Concord for observation. At this writing he is still at the State Hospital.

13. State v. Herman Apitz; statutory offence: plea, not guilty; case marked "not to go forward."

14. State v. Edwin R. Bennett; offence: incest; plea, guilty; sentence: one year and one day to three years in State Prison. Since this offence occurred the Legislature at the 1931 session increased the penalty to not more than 20 years in State Prison. The former penalty was not more than three years in State Prison.

15. State v. Ralph Cornish; offence: breaking, entering and larceny; plea, guilty; sentence: six months in jail. This case arose in the year 1928 and while the respondent was out on bail, he was arrested in Massachusetts for a like offence and served two and one-half years at the Concord Reformatory, so that he has been in jail now continuously for the last three years.

16. State v. Stephen Boremi, James Palermo, Edmund DeGrenolio, Angelo Verdigluzzio, Ralph DeMarco, Joseph Furnari, John DeGaitano, James Traficante and Samuel Napoli; offence: rape, at Salem. These men all pleaded guilty after a jury was drawn and just before the jury was about to proceed to Salem to view the place where the offence was committed. Sentence: Trafficante and Napoli each eight to ten years in State Prison; Boremi, Palermo, DeGregnolio, Verdigluzzio, DeMarco, Furnari and DeGaitano were each sentenced to State Prison for a term of ten to twelve years. Mario Feole, on the same charge, pleaded guilty and is awaiting sentence.

At this term of court there were several juvenile cases disposed of by the court in such manner as was thought to be in the best interests of the individual child concerned.

I have no recommendations nor suggestions to make at this time. I might say, however, that I am pleased to serve the county and that in my work I have had full co-operation at all times, both on the part of the county and town officers.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE R. SCAMMON,

County Solicitor.
